MEN ARE POWERLESS

To Fight Against Disease Unless They Strike at the Underlying Cause.

To treat Dandruff, and Falling Hair, with irritants or oils on which a parasitic germ will prosper, is like scooping water from the ocean to prevent the tide from rising.

You cannot accomplish a satisfactory cure without having a right understanding of the fundamental causes of the trouble.

You must kill the Dandruff Germ.

Newbro's Herpicide does this because it is specially made to do that very thing.

When the germ is removed, the hair has no choice but to resume healthy growth and beauty.

"Destroy the cause, you remove the effect."

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Marriage of King Alfonso.

Already interest is being manifested in the forthcoming marriage of King Alfonso and Princess Ena of Battenberg. The preliminaries will, in accordance with Spanish etiquette, be as follows:

"An ambassador extraordinary with plenary powers will go to England to demand the hand of the Princess. The matrimonial contract will be drawn up, read and signed in London. It will be ratified by King Edward and King Alfonso."

It is practically certain that Princess Ena will enter Spain from the north at Iran, where she will be met by the chief major domo of the palace in behalf of King Alfonso, as well as municipal and military authorities and the British Ambassador, who will first present Princess Ena and her mother and then their suites to the Spanish authorities.

The Princess and her mother will then proceed to the Palace at El Pardo, seven miles from Madrid, where they will remain for six days before the wedding. They will be met there by King Alfonso and the Queen mother. Two days before the wedding there will be a solemn reading of the marriage treaty, which is practically equivalent to a bethrothal.

On the wedding day the Princess will leave El Pardo early, in strict incognito, without escort of any kind. King Alfonso and two adjutants on horseback will join her in the neighborhood of El Pardo and accompany her to the entrance of the city. The Princess will then be robed in a building which has not yet been selected, where the trousseau will have been exhibited. She will preserve her incognito until she enters the gala carriage to go to the church.

According to the usage of the Spanish Court, all the articles of the trousseau will be exhibited, even to the most minute details of household linen. The dresses will be on lay figures and the jewelry and other articles in glass cases under the care of halberdiers. Entrance to the exhibition will be free to all classes.

To Cut Down Printing Bills.

To do away with unnecessary printing originating in the departments, and to improve the form of the annual reports and other department documents, the President has issued the following instructions, applicable to all the executive departments:

"There shall be appointed by the head of each of the executive departments an advisory committee on the subject of printing and publication. The chairman shall be an assistant secretary, or other qualified official, and at least one member of the committee shall have had practical experience in editing and printing.

"It shall be the duty of such committee, under direction of the head of the department, to see that unnecessary matter is excluded from reports and publications; to see that copy is carefully edited before and not after going to the printing office; to do away with the publication of unnecessary tables, and to require that statistical matter be published in condensed and intelligible form; to supervise the preparation of blank forms; to require the frequent revision of mailing lists; to prevent duplication of printing by different bureaus; to exclude unnecessary illustrations from department documents, and to prevent the printing of the maximum edition allowed by law when a smaller edition will suffice; to recommend to the head of the department, for inclusion in the recommendations contained in his annual reports needed changes in the statutes governing department publications."

Anti-Mafia Organization.

Recent activity of the Black Hand in the Lackawanna and Wyoming Valleys, Pa., has alarmed the law abiding Italians of the region and prompted them to organize for the extermination of the banditti.

Threats to extort tribute have been followed by murder, with the result that a reign of terror prevails among the compatriots of the criminals who have transferred to American soil some of the worst features of trans-Atlantic brigandage. It has come to such a desperate pass that it is no longer safe for an Italian to be considered prosperous in that section.

With a view to halting the operations of the desperadoes, there has been formed in Carbondale an anti-Mafia organization called the St. Joseph Society, and this is to be extended to every town in the anthracite region.

Rev. Father Cerutti, of the Church of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, Carbondale, is a leader in the organization.

Since an attempt several days ago to blow up the home of Antonio Fazio, in the center of Scranton, following a threat to kill him and his family because he refused to pay $500, Italian business men in various parts of the city have received demands for tribute money under pain of death.

Law abiding men are arming and declaring themselves in favor of lynching as the only proper remedy for the terrorists, and it is not at all improbable that a vendetta may ensue as a result of the present condition of affairs.

WHO SHE WAS

SKETCH OF THE LIFE OF LYDIA E. PINKHAM

And a True Story of How the Vegetable Compound Had Its Birth and How the "Panic of '73" Caused it to be Offered for Public Sale in Drug Stores.

This remarkable woman, whose maiden name was Estes, was born in Lynn, Mass., February 9th, 1819, coming from a good old Quaker family. For some years she taught school, and became known as a woman of an alert and investigating mind, an earnest seeker after knowledge, and above all, possessed of a wonderfully sympathetic nature.

In 1843 she married Isaac Pinkham, a builder and real estate operator, and their early married life was marked by prosperity and happiness. They had four children, three sons and a daughter.

In those good old fashioned days it was common for mothers to make their own home medicines from roots and herbs, nature's own remedies—calling in a physician only in specially urgent cases. By tradition and experience many of them gained a wonderful knowledge of the curative properties of the various roots and herbs.

Mrs. Pinkham took a great interest in the study of roots and herbs, their characteristics and power over disease. She maintained that just as nature so bountifully provides in the harvest-fields and orchards vegetable foods of all kinds; so, if we but take the pains to find them, in the roots and herbs of the field there are remedies expressly designed to cure the various ills and weaknesses of the body, and it was her pleasure to search these out, and prepare simple and effective medicines for her own family and friends.

Chief of these was a rare combination of the choicest medicinal roots and herbs found best adapted for the cure of the ills and weaknesses peculiar to the female sex, and Lydia E. Pinkham's friends and neighbors learned that her compound relieved and cured and it became quite popular among them.

All this so far was done freely, without money and without price, as a labor of love.

But in 1873 the financial crisis struck Lynn. Its length and severity were too much for the large real estate interests of the Pinkham family, as this class of business suffered most from fearful depression, so when the Centennial year dawned it found their property swept away. Some other source of income had to be found.

At this point Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was made known to the world.

The three sons and the daughter, with their mother, combined forces to restore the family fortune. They argued that the medicine which was so good for their woman friends and neighbors was equally good for the women of the whole world.

The Pinkhams had no money, and little credit. Their first laboratory was the kitchen, where roots and herbs were steeped on the stove, gradually filling a gross of bottles. Then came the question of selling it, for always before they had given it away freely. They hired a job printer to run off some pamphlets setting forth the merits of the medicine, now called Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and these were distributed by the Pinkham sons in Boston, New York, and Brooklyn.

The wonderful curative properties of the medicine were, to a great extent, self-advertising, for whoever used it recommended it to others, and the demand gradually increased.

In 1877, by combined efforts the family had saved enough money to commence newspaper advertising and from that time the growth and success of the enterprise were assured, until today Lydia E. Pinkham and her Vegetable Compound have become household words everywhere, and many tons of roots and herbs are used annually in its manufacture.

Lydia E. Pinkham herself did not live to see the great success of this work. She passed to her reward years ago, but not till she had provided means for continuing her work as effectively as she could have done it herself.

During her long and eventful experience she was ever methodical in her work and she was always careful to preserve a record of every case that came to her attention. The case of every sick woman who applied to her for advice—and there were thousands—received careful study, and the details, including symptoms, treatment and results were recorded for future reference, and to-day these records, together with hundreds of thousands made since, are available to sick women the world over, and represent a vast collaboration of information regarding the treatment of woman's ills, which for authenticity and accuracy can hardly be equaled in any library in the world.

With Lydia E. Pinkham worked her daughter-in-law, the present Mrs. Pinkham. She was carefully instructed in all her hard-won knowledge, and for years she assisted her in her vast correspondence.

To her hands naturally fell the direction of the work when its originator passed away. For nearly twenty-five years she has continued it, and nothing in the work shows when the first Lydia E. Pinkham dropped her pen, and the present Mrs. Pinkham, now the mother of a large family, took it up. With women assistants, some as capable as herself, the present Mrs. Pinkham continues this great work, and probably from the office of no other person have so many women been advised how to regain health. Sick women, this advice is "Yours for Health" freely given if you only write to ask for it.

Such is the history of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; made from simple roots and herbs; the one great medicine for women's ailments, and the fitting monument to the noble woman whose name it bears.

Killed by Brother.

Felix Bettelli, twenty-five years old, of Brooklyn, was stabbed to death yesterday in the home of Lena Campano, in that borough, after he had tried to kill both the young woman and her seventeen-year-old brother Nicholas. Failing in his attempt to force his attentions on the woman, Bettelli attacked her and tried to stifle her cries by drawing his pistol. She dared him to fire, and he promptly sent two shots into her right arm and hand. The sound of the reports aroused the girl's brother, who, springing from his bed, attacked Bettelli. He received a bullet wound in his right arm, but continued the attack. Seizing a hunter's knife, he plunged the long blade into Bettelli's left side, inflicting an injury which caused death an hour later at a hospital.

Stomach Troubles and Constipation.

"Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are the best thing for stomach troubles and constipation I have ever sold," says J. R. Cullman, a druggist of Potterville, Mich. They are easy to take and always gives satisfaction. I tell my customers to try them and if not satisfactory to come back and get their money, but have never had a complaint." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Perfection can only be attained in the physical by allowing Nature to appropriate and not dissipate her own resources. Cathartics gripe, weaken—dissipate, while DeWitt's Little Early Risers simply expel all putrid matter and bile, thus allowing the liver to assume normal activity. Good for the complexion. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

Bent Her Double.

"I knew no one for four weeks when I was was sick with typhoid and kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Annie Hunter, of Pittsburg, Pa., "and when I got better, although I had one of the best doctors I could get, I was bent double, and had to rest my hands on my knees when I walked. From this terrible affliction I was rescued by Electric Bitters, which restored my health and strength, and now I can walk as straight as ever. They are simply wonderful." Guaranteed to cure, stomach, liver and kidney disorders; at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; price 50.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

MONDAY EVENING, JAN. 22, 1906.

GOVERNOR DOUGLAS, of Massachusetts, has issued a statement favoring the immediate revision of the tariff, saying that he would gladly give up the duty of 25 per cent. on shoes, speaking as a manufacturer, in return for free raw material, or even for free hides and sole leather. He adds:

If the handicap of taxed leather were taken away, I could manufacture shoes as cheaply as any foreign manufacturer, and could safely meet the competition of the world. We are held back, however, by the high cost of materials that enter into our product. Give our manufacturers free raw materials and they will carry Massachusetts goods into every market of the world. Sole leather costs 40 per cent. more now than it did in 1897. Most of the leathers used in the tops of shoes have increased, but manufacturers have been able to overcome this great increase in cost of raw material by the improvement in machinery, change of method in manufacture, and by doing a larger volume of business at a lower percentage of profits. But now we have reached our limit. Today shoe manufacturers cannot reduce the cost of labor or the cost of materials, and they cannot take a smaller profit and remain in business.

And what Gov. Douglas says about the manufacture of shoes applies equally to all other articles manufactured out of taxed raw material.

DURING a debate in the Senate last week Mr. Hale, of Maine, the republican leader, said he wished that the President and Secretary of State had not accepted the invitation to the conference at Algeciras, which he regarded as purely a political conference. He thought there was great danger from the ascendance of the war spirit of the country. Mr. Hale is not the only man of his day who sees danger ahead, and all should remember that it was this very danger that Washington sought to avoid when, in his farewell address, he warned the American government against foreign entanglements.

THE WORLD'S production of anthracite and bituminous coal during 1905 broke all previous records by exceeding 1,000,000,000 tons, compared with 973,140,329 tons in 1903, the largest previous output. Of this great total, 390,000,000 tons, or 39 per cent. was produced in this country, At this rate the supply of coal must at some day become exhausted, but before that time, in all probability, something else will be discovered to take its place as a fuel. Necessity is the mother of invention and the constantly increasing price of wood and coal will, it is hoped, soon lead to such a discovery.

IT IS stated that the fight for the postoffice at Woodstock, Shenandoah county, which developed great bitterness and which was recently before the republican board of patronage referees of the Seventh Virginia district, has now been taken to the Postmaster General's office at Washington, and "that President Roosevelt will be the final arbiter of the contest." This seems to be a drop for the arbiter of nations to an arbiter of a country town postmastership fight! But Mr. Roosevelt is the "whole thing."

IN ANOTHER column of the Gazette a communication concerning partridges from Judge J. K. M. Norton appears. His suggestions are timely, and it is hoped many people living in this section will interest themselves in the propagation of this bird which in recent years has almost been exterminated in this neighborhood.

"LET the nation's convicts build the nation's roads." This, in a nutshell, is a resolution adopted at Indianapolis Saturday by the United Mine Workers of America, in national convention. Thus, for the first time an American labor organization of national scope declares in favor of convict labor.

MR. JACOB A. RIIS, a confidential friend of the President, says if the policies for which Mr. Roosevelt is now contending are not enacted by Congress by the time his term expires, the President may feel that duty calls him to accept another term. Thrice did Caesar refuse a crown!

THE editor of a Russian newspaper has been sent to prison for publishing seditious alarms. The penalty justly fits the crime. If some of the American yellow journal alarmists were treated likewise the country would be better off.

Drop in Eggs.

The egg merchants of Chicago, who last month sustained losses of $1,000,000 and who have on hand large stocks of cold storage products, are facing a 10 cent market if the weather does not turn bitter cold at once. Eggs that dealers put into storage last summer at 17 cents to 20 cent a dozen sold Saturday at 11 cents. The warm weather is keeping hens busy laying, giving grocers a chance to compel egg merchants to sell the storage eggs to them cheap.

Charles Tucker, convicted of the murder of Mable Page, at Weston, Mass., has been denied a new trial.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Jan. 22.

The House committee on territories today completed consideration of the Hamilton bill to admit Oklahoma and Indian Territory as one, and Arizona and New Mexico, as another State, and by a unanimous vote of the republicans ordered the bill favorably reported. The democrats are united against the bill, opposing the admission of Arizona and New Mexico, and will submit a minority report. The reports will be submitted to to the House tomorrow, and the bill will be taken up for consideration on Wednesday.

President Roosevelt's efforts to save the golden trout, found only in one creek in California, from extinction promises to bring forth reward. The Bureau of Fisheries is making a study of the fish and has recommended that the State of California transplant it to to a barren stream in the region of Volcano creek, the present habitat, and that the general government undertake its artificial propagation. The President became acquainted with the great beauty, gameness and delicious favor of this species on one of his western trips.

The Senate committee on interoceanic canals will hear Chief Engineer John F. Stevens tomorrow on the question of the type of the canal. The minority report of the board of advisory engineers has been considered and submitted to the President. It recommends a canal with locks. The majority report submitted some time ago recommend a sea level plan. Mr. Stevens is to be interrogated as to which plan he favors in view of his experience on the isthmus. It is well understood that Mr. Stevens will urge the adoption of a plan for the canal involving lock levels.

Representatives from 27 States and of the District of Columbia were in attendance at the opening session of the annual convention of the Interstate National Guard Association at the Arlington this morning. Senator Charles Dick, of Ohio, president of the organization, called the convention to order. The various delegations will button-hole their congressional delegation in behalf of the bill now before Congress to appropriate $1,000,000 for the better equipment of the citizen-soldiery and the establishment of rifle ranges. Gen. Oliver, Assistant Secretary of War, was present as the representative of the Secretary of War. Secretary Taft found time to come in late. In his remarks of welcome he said that the present national guard is but the skeleton upon which to place the flesh in time of war and but a logical basis for a larger army. He pleaded for further provision for the guard The delegation was received by the President at 2:30 p. m.

New York was represented on the Senate floor today by two Senators, the first time since the holiday. Mr. Platt who has returned from Hot Springs, Va. was the first one in his seat. He looked greatly improved in health. Mr. Depew, whose prolonged absence from the Senate has caused grave rumors concerning the state of his mental and physical condition, entered the chamber just as the morning prayer was begun. The Senator's countenance betrayed worry. The first to greet him was his colleague, Mr. Platt, but later leading republicans made their way to the front row to welcome the two Senators. Mr. Depew's greetings were cheerful, but the former effervescence of boyish enthusiasm was not back of them.

Mr. Rixey to a representative of the Gazette today said he enjoyed himself greatly at the Lee Camp banquet in Alexandria Friday night, as did the others who went from here with him. Mr. Rixey, who is always a welcome guest at these banquets and who has attended many of them, says Lee Camp could hardly have gotten better speakers than it had last Friday night.

Mr. Rixey has offered the following bills in the House: Petition of Alexandria Council J. O. U. A. M., to restrict immigration; bill for an increase of pension to Mrs. Martha Brooks Wilson; bill for the relief of the trustees of the Presbyterian Church, at Culpeper; and bill for the relief of the trustees of Tabernacle M. E. Church (south), of Culpeper county, Va.

Medical Inspector Presley M. Rixey, United States Navy, has been appointed by the President to be Surgeon-General and Chief of the Bureau of Medicine and Surgery in the Department of the Navy, with the rank of rear-admiral, for a term of four years from the 5th day of February, 1906. Dr. Rixey is a brother of Congressman J. F. Rixey, of this district.

Senator Martin is still confined to his home with a severe cold and will not be able to go to Richmond tomorrow, on which day he will be re-elected for another six years' term in the Senate, beginning March 4, 1907.

Senator Depew arrived here last night on a late train from New York. It is expected that he will be in his seat at the Senate this afternoon.

Attorney General R. H. McCarter, of New Jersey, filed with the Supreme Court of the United States today, a motion to advance the hearing of arguments in the appeal of Anna Valentina, convicted of murder in Hackensack, N. J. The motion was taken under advisement by the court.

But little business of general interest was before Congress today, so the attendance of members of both branches was slim.

Chief Wilkie of the Secret Service has received word from La Junta, Colorado, of the arrest there of J. D. Barnard and W. D. Blackburn who are charged with making and passing $10 counterfeit bills of the "Buffalo head" design.

The case of Caleb Powers, three times convicted of complicity in the murder of Gov. Gobel, of Kentucky, came up in the U. S. Supreme Court today. The right of the government to take the case from the State is denied, on the ground that the record does not sustain the contention that Powers had been denied his constitutional rights.

The President sent the following nominations to the Senate: To be ambassadors—Luke E. Wright, of Tennessee, to Japan; David E. Thompson, of Nebraska, to Mexico; Lloyd C. Griscom, of Pennsylvania, to Brazil. To be Governor General of the Philippines—Henry Clay Ide of Vermont; To be Vice Governor of the Philippines—James F. Smith, of California. Thomas W. Carter was appointed postmaster at Orange and Bentley Kern, at Winchester.

Solicitor General Hoyt, in the Supreme Court of the United States today, moved that the appeal of Senator Joseph R. Burton, of Kansas, to have set aside his second conviction at St. Louis for unlawful transactions in connection with practice before the Postoffice Department, be advanced on the docket for hearing March 12. John G. Carlisle, on behalf of Sears Lehman, attorney for Senator Burton, said the appellants' counsel would be prepared to argue the appeal about April 2. The court took the motion under advisement.

In an opinion by Chief Justice Fuller, the Supreme Court of the United States today reversed the decision of the Circuit Court for the Northern District of West Virginia granting a writ of habeas corpus to Charles A. Caldwell. The latter had made certain charges against the governor of West Virginia, which the House of Delegates of that State, by resolution, ordered a committee to investigate. Caldwell was committed for contempt for failure to appear before the committee. Today's decision holds that there was no constitutional authority for the Federal Court to interfere in Caldwell's behalf.

It is stated at the Navy Department today that Ensign Chas. L. Wade, U. S. N., who had charge of the engineering department of the gunboat Bennington at the time of the explosion in San Diego harbor last July, has been acquitted by the court martial which tried him and has been restored to duty. Secretary Bonaparte, when he first received from the court the proceedings in the case, disapproved of the finding of acquittal and returned the papers to the court. Upon reconsideration, the court adhered to its findings which the Secretary now approves.

Senator Gallinger proposes that Washington shall get all its hot air and cold air from a central plant, which, while run by a specially authorized company, shall be regulated by Congress as to the charges made to householders.

Senator Burton of Kansas, wants his mileage, approximating $1,000. But he will have to show himself on the Senate floor to get it. This he does not wish to do. If Burton were in attendance upon the daily sessions there would be no difficulty. But in response to a suggestion from Senate leaders, he has decided to absent himself from these session, and committee work, until vindicated by the court of last resort in connection with the charge of accepting money for services rendered in his capacity as a Senator. So an affidavit from one of the clerks that he had been seen in the Senate is necessary, as a voucher for his mileage. That is why there was an interesting by-play behind the scenes today.

President Roosevelt had an anti-graft luncheon at the White House this afternoon, at which the invited guests were Lincoln Steffens, Mayor Fagan, of Jersey City, and Corporation Counsel Record, also of Jersey City. The Jersey gentlemen stated that they were unadvised as to the President's purpose in having them break bread with him.

Belief that President Roosevelt would, if he finds it impossible to put into effect his programme of legislation for "curbing the money power" before the end of his present term, accept a renomination for the presidency, expressed by his close friend, Jacob Riis, in an interview at Toledo Saturday, is shared by many prominent men here. "We feared this from the first," sums up in greatly moderated language the expressions of many republican Congressmen. "If anything will induce Congress to pass the bills the President says he wants, this threat of four years more of strenuosity is the thing," was the way one disgruntled republican put it. There was a disposition among Senators and members to regard the Riis interview as inspired to some degree at least. Many of them seem to have suspected that the President would reconsider his election night declaration of a determination not again to be a candidate as time went by.

News of the Day.

Mail matter worth $1,000,000 was destroyed by the burning of a railroad car in Brussels yesterday.

Over 600 canary birds were suffocated by smoke during a fire in E. C. Vahle's bird and animal store, in Philadelphia, Saturday night.

Outwardly there were no signs of disturbances in the larger cities of Pennsylvania on the anniversary of January 22 ("Red Sunday").

Bishop John Christian Keener, of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, a native of Baltimore, died in New Orleans Saturday at the age of 87.

The explosion of a boiler in the basement of the Windermere Hotel in Chicago last night wrecked the building, killed the engineer and caused a panic among the guests.

The French government has been given a free upper hand by the United States to exact from Venezuela redress for the insulting treatment of her charge d'affaires at Caracas.

Secretary of War Taft has transmitted to Congress, with a favorable recommendation, a draft of a joint resolution extending the time for the completion of the Highway bridge across the Potomac. The Secretary calls attention to the fact that the time for completing the bridge was extended to February 12, 1906.

In obedience to stipulations in his will, William Burnside's ashes on Saturday were cast into the Mississippi river from the top of Eads Bridge, St. Louis. The midair funeral was performed by Attorney J. A. Nolan, executor of the will, who recited a few lines of original poetry as he poured the ashes from a jar. Burnside was once wealthy, but died in comparative poverty at the age of eighty years.

The government of President Moreno in Ecuador lasted one hour; the people rose at the news and proclaimed General Alfaro President. There was hard fighting at Guayaquil, in which many persons were killed or wounded. Advices from Quito say that Senor Garcia, the deposed President of Ecuador, has taken refuge in the Brazilian legation. Communication between Quito and Guayaquil is interrupted.

Dr. Alexander White Pitzer yesterday celebrated his thirty-eighth anniversary as pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church South, of Washington. It is probable that his record is not equaled by any other minister in the capital city. Dr Pitzer organized the church in 1868 and has been its pastor since that time. He preached his first sermon in that city in the old Columbian law building, on Fifth street northwest, January 19, 1868.

Falling 300 feet with his aeroplane, Charles Hamilton, the sky pilot at noon yesterday collided with the tall ring pole at the bathhouse, on the beach at the Hotel Ormond, Fla., and escaped with a lively shaking up. When the aeroplane landed, Hamilton, who was climbing to the rope seat, was pitched forward, face first, upon the board walk. His right leg caught the force of the fall, but he also struck heavily upon his chin and arms. Mr. Hamilton escaped serious injury and declared he will go up again tomorrow.

THE LEGISLATURE.

The Senate was not in session on Saturday.

Among the bills offered in the House were two or three of general interest, attention being particularly called to a measure proposed by Mr. Byrd, designed to remove from the cities and towns which have taken advantage of the annexation act of 1904 to extend their limits, the danger of an upheaval as a result of the proceedings now pending in the courts of the State. This bill validates the steps taken under this act, whatever may be the decision of the courts as to the constitutionality of the law, and insures the status of the cities in question presenting what, should the act be declared unconstitutional, might otherwise be a serious and even disastrous blow to the municipalities. Numerous cities and towns have taken advantage of the act to enlarge their boundaries and many have held elections, issued bonds and made improvements on the basis of the new corporate limits. To declare this null and void would cause incalculable confusion in the State.

Mr. Cox introduced a bill to extend the time of the act passed in 1903 providing for an appropriation of $10,000 for a statue of Lee in Statuary Hall in the Capitol at Washington. The limitation of the original act was two years. Sculptor Valentine is at work on the figure, but it is far from finished, and Mr. Cox's bill is simply to keep alive the measure. The act authorizes only a payment of one-third of the money until the statue is completed.

Mr. Cox also introduced a bill intended to meet the awkward situation in which Richmond was thrown by the death of its city treasurer, without the power to at once select another. Its empowers cities and towns, in addition to their other charter privileges, to fill vacancies in their offices. The bill while intended to carry out charter changes for Richmond, applies to all towns and cities alike, as provided by the constitution that such measures can only be effected through a general bill.

Mr. Sterrett introduced a bill asking a $2,500 appropriation for the Governor's contingent fund, on account of unusual expenses in the last fiscal year, such as the funerals of Fitzhugh Lee, ex-Governor O'Ferrall, entertainment of President Roosevelt, renting offices, and the like.

The Caton bill, permitting the creation of estates by devise or deed of gift, to which the estates of courtesy or dower shall not attach, was reported adversely from the committee for courts of justice. The report of the joint committee on local and private legislation indicated the decision reached touching amendments to local road laws, the constitutionality of which is questioned.

Bills were introduced:

To amend the act to provide for the appointment of police justices by the corporation courts and their jurisdiction in cities of a population of ten thousand or over, in which, by the terms of their charter, no provision is made for the election or appointment of police justices. The bill provides that the term of a police justice shall be four years. It is further provided that the police justice shall be paid a salary out of the city treasury, the amount to be fixed by the city council, and that the justice shall receive no further compensation for his services The salary is to be not less than $720 in cities of 10,000 to 15,000 population; not less than $1,000 in cities of from over 15,000 to 20,000, and not less than $1,200 in cities of over 20,000.

To amend the code relating to the division of school districts and sub-districts, so as to provide for such division; for the government and administration of such sub-districts; for additional school tax therein, and for the appointment of school directors, providing for their terms of office powers, duties, etc.

To amend the code relating to the regulation of the number of schools.

To declare the true and lawful confines of cities and towns of a certain class.

Senator Machen has announced that he would within a few days re-introduce the bill for a legalized primary that caused the spectacular fight at the last session.

It is stated that when Senator Strode, of Amherst, introduced his bill last week looking to a reduction in the cost of tuition at the University of Virginia, the authorities there had already cut the matriculation free in half, from $40 to $20.

Mr. Byrd is making a fight to increase the salaries of Virginia's twenty-four circuit judges, and the finance committee has reported his bill favorably, after cutting the figure down from $3,500 to $3,000.

The re-election of United States Senator Martin, which will take place tomorrow will be one of the features of the session. Under a joint resolution already adopted, the two houses will proceed at 1:30 p. m. to elect a Senator. Senator Henry T. Wickham, of Hanover, will present the name of the junior Senator in the upper branch, and this service will be performed in the House by Mr. Richard E. Byrd, of Winchester.

Southern Railway Company vs. Hill; passed.

Smokeless Fuel Company vs. Seaton & Sons; submitted on briefs.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflammed portion of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

The Prince declares that those countries which possess popular franchise are the happiest and most contented. The utterance of the prince has greatly offended the reactionaries at the court of Berlin.

Eighteen Persons Killed.

Eighteen persons were killed and about forty injured in a panic following the cry of fire last night in St. Paul's Colored Baptist Church, on the west side of Eighth street, between Poplar street and Girard avenue, Philadelphia.

The services were being held on the second floor of the building. A defective flue set fire to the chimney, causing smoke to issue through the crevices in the floor near the pulpit. The room was well filled at the time, and the cry of fire coupled with the sight of the smoke, threw the congregation into a panic.

A wild rush was made for the stairs, despite the efforts of Rev. E. W. Johnson, the pastor, to allay the fears of the frenzied people.

All wanted to go out at once, and men, women, and children alike were knocked down and trampled upon by those pushing from behind.

The stairway to the first floor had one sharp turn in it, and the frightened people became so tightly wedged in the bend of the stairs that the frail wooden banister gave away, precipitating many to the first floor.

The crash and the screams and shrieks of the women and children added to the frenzy of those above. They did not stop in their onward rush to get out. Notwithstanding the wide-open doors on the first floor leading to the street, the crush was so great that eighteen persons had their life stamped out of them before the panic was ended.

The fire was only trifling, the flames being extinguished before the firemen arrived.

The building inspectors are blamed for the panic in the church. Coroner Jermon has ordered a thorough investigation. It was found that the flue was defective, and that the heater pipe came within six inches or less of a wooden joist. Only one man lost his life in the panic, all the other victims being women and children.

Letter From Richmond.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Jan. 21.—With the legislature in session and many novel, many useful and a great many expensive measures being introduced, the present session promises to be replete with excitement. Already bills have been introduced carrying with them appropriations, which, if acted on favorably, bid fair to place the State Treasury in a condition of financial embarrassment.

The following are some of the most important bills presented: "For the creation of an insurance bureau," introduced by Mr. Caton. A bill "to provide for the appointment of Commissioners of Revenue by the Circuit Court." This bill will in all probability pass by a a safe majority. This will give positions to 40 or 50 democrats, that number of Commissioners of Revenue now being republicans. Mr. Caton, leader of the House, is one of the foremost advocates of the measure. A bill to pay judges and clerks of elections two instead of one dollar per day, was reported on favorably from the committee on elections and will pass.

Game in Virginia.

To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette.

Dear Sir: As the Bob White in this section were almost exterminated the past year, I have made arrangements by which I will be able to get some live birds from Kansas. I have several times turned out these birds in pairs, and never failed to get splendid results.

If anyone in town, or in this section, who hunt, can help in this cause, I will gladly try to get some birds for them. There will be little chance of getting any unless the orders go in by the first part of February. Indeed, it is not certain that I will be able to get more than enough to fill my order. It is possible, however, that I could get some more, and I will gladly give any one the benefit of my experience as to turning out these birds. Very few pairs of birds turned out on the places of several farmers, with the slightest looking after, will almost certainly result in several covies.

Those of us who have been in the habit of hunting on other lands have an opportunity now of somewhat repaying them for the privileges they have granted, and will add to our own sport. Much money is spent in going to North Carolina and other places to hunt. A fraction of money so spent, put in birds and turned out in Fairfax will give them better hunting at home, at little or no cost. I will be glad to hear from any one on this subject.

Very truly yours,

J. K. M. NORTON.

Mystery Explained.

The mystery surrounding the disappearance of Philip Wilkinson, alias Warring, who formerly lived in this city, from his home at Halls Hill, Fairfax county, early in September, was practically cleared up yesterday afternoon, when Lieut. Mathews, of the Fourth precinct, Washington, visited the jail and interviewed Joseph Leavel, from whom he obtained a statement showing that Wilkinson was murdered, and that his body was buried in the rocks near Chain Bridge. Levell implicates Lulu Tyler, who has declared that she was only a witness to the crime. Wilkinson was left on the ground where he fell and was still alive when the two returned to the house, where they retired for the night. Neither, Leavell said, could sleep for thinking of the affair, and after tossing about for three hours they went out in the yard and found that Wilkinson was dead. The two, according to the confession, buried the body, after dragging it across a stream. A month later, while in Alexandria, he was told, he said, that a searching party was to be organized to find Wilkinson. He was frightened at this news, and returning to the scene of the killing, exhumed the body and tried without success to sink it in the river. He then wrapped it in a blanket and placed it in a grave near the shore. Sheriff J. R. Allison, of Fairfax county, went to Washington yesterday afternoon, and, after hearing the woman's statement, took her back with him to Fairfax. He will try today to locate the remains, after which action will be taken by the grand jury to indict both the man and the woman. Leavell is well-known in this city where he lived for a long time.

Warm Sunday.

The temperature yesterday was akin to that of May, although this is supposed to be the mid-winter season. The atmosphere at times was oppressive, and fires were allowed to expire in many houses in order to render conditions more comfortable. The warm wave, which scores the highest record in temperature since 1890, prevailed throughout the region between the Mississippi Valley and the Atlantic coast. Its crest was in Ohio, where the temperatures yesterday afternoon ranged from 70 to 74 degrees. In Pittsburg, Pa., a man was prostrated by the heat yesterday. South of the Ohio river it was less warm, because of heavy rains and thunder showers. Thunderstorms also prevailed in Tennessee, Mississippi, Alabama and northwest Georgia. A cold wave which developed in the West is rapidly following the warm wave, and the forecasts say it will reach the Atlantic coast tonight, but its force will be diminished as it progresses east. The weather officials announce the fall of temperatures will approximate 40 degrees in the region just west of the Mississippi river and north of the Missouri, while it will go below zero in the Dakotas, Minnesota, Nebraska and the Middle Rocky Mountain region. In this city yesterday there was a maximum temperature of 63 degrees.

Robbed on a Train.

Miss Addie Phillips, daughter of Mr. Elmer Phillips, was robbed of her pocketbook by a negro man on an electric railway train in Washington Saturday night. Miss Phillips, who is employed in a store in Washington, had placed her week's pay in the pocketbook with her railway tickets and had boarded the train for the purpose of returning to this city. While in the car the negro entered and snatched the pocketbook from her hand. He then forced his way toward a door amid the greatest excitement, as his act had been witnessed by some of the passengers, who attempted to intercept him. In the scuffle win low glass was broken and many of the female occupants of the car were frightened. The thief succeeded in making his escape. All Miss Phillips's money was in the pocketbook, as were also her tickets, and being unacquainted with any one on the train, she would have been delayed in reaching her home had not a stranger purchased a ticket for her. This is the second time Miss Phillips has been robbed during the past two weeks, she having suffered a similar loss in Washington where her pocketbook was stolen.

Pool Room at Harper's Ferry.

Mr. J. M. Hill, of this city, it is said, is planing to put in operation what will be the largest poolroom south of New York. Harper's Ferry is to be the location of the new project, which will be fitted up in the modern style with all the necessary paraphernalia and all appliances for the quick handling of racing information from all of the courses in the United States and Canada. There was some opposition to the project by people living in the vicinity, but the Jefferson county court has approved of the application. The promoters of the scheme have gained the co operation of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and it is said that a special train schedule will be adopted.

Deaths.

Mr. Thomas B. Rouse, aged 63 years, died at Mount Vernon yesterday. The deceased leaves a widow and eight children. Mr. Rouse was a Confederate soldier during the civil war, he having been a member of one of the Virginia regiments. His remains will be brought to this city for interment.

Mr. Bryan Doran, an old and well-known citizen, died at his home on the corner of Queen and Alfred streets yesterday. The deceased was for many years employed in the street department of this city.

Death of Mrs. Stump.

Rev. J. P. Stump, of the M. E. Church South, left here today to attend the funeral of his mother, who died at her home near Martinsburg, W. Va., yesterday, aged 90 years. The funeral will take place tomorrow. Mr. Stump has the sympathy not only of his congregation, but of his large circle of friends and acquaintances in this city in his bereavement.

A Jeffers, of the Trinity M. E. Church, and the interment was in the Presbyterian Cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. J. H. Hammond, Robt. W. Arnold, W. E. Latham, J. T. Boyd, Wm. Campbell and C. S Self.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary A. Warder took place from the residence on south Fairfax street yesterday afternoon, and was attended by many friends and acquaintances of the family. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Jeffers.

Got Into Wrong Pocket.

A young man of this city, according to a story that is going the rounds, "scraped" the acquaintance of a young woman on King street a few nights ago and walked with her a few squares. The damsel seemed to be interested in her escort, while the latter was equally pleased with her. On an unfrequented start the woman observed that the young man's neck tie was out of position and undertook to adjust it, after which act she suddenly left him and disappeared. Her escort later discovered that one of his pockets had been cut open and fifteen cents taken. The other pocket contained several dollars.

The Coming Celebration.

Mr. Julian Y. Williams, secretary of the George Washington Birthday Association, has received a letter from Congressman J. F. Rixey stating that all the military in this vicinity has been ordered to this city on the 22nd proximo for the purpose of participating in the celebration in this city on that day.

A meeting of the Friendship Veteran Fire Association will be held tonight at which arrangements will be made for the coming parade.

The Columbia Fire Company will meet tonight to consider matters regarding the proposed parade.

A man who gave his name as Spence and who said he came from Washington reported to the police yesterday that he had been knocked down and robbed of $25 by a stranger with whom he had been keeping company while in this city. He stated that he met the man in Washington, Saturday, and accompanied him to this city. While here he alleges he was assaulted and robbed by his companion.

Fined for Assault.

Important to Merchants

The Corporation Court has been engaged today in the trial of a suit which is of much importance to the merchants of this city and community, it being the first time in this city that the question has been before the court. Harlow Bros., it was shown from the evidence, had secured a judgment against John Harrrison and had issued execution and levied the same upon property used in business by the judgment debtors. After the property had been taken into possession by the sergeant the wife of John Harrison filed a petition, and claimed the ownership of the property which had been levied upon. It was contended by the counsel who represented Harlow Bros., that all the goods and chattels used in the business by John Harrison was responsible for his debts and the court granted instructions to this effect and the jury decided in behalf of the contention of Harlow Bros. Harlow Bros. were represented by E. B. Taylor and John Harrison and wife by Robinson Moncure.

Occasionally females, who are guilty of misdemeanors, are unable to pay their fines in the Police Court, and are sent to the workhouse. A large percentage of them escape from that institution, and as there are no suitable quarters for the sex in the city jail, the authorities are at times puzzled to know what disposition to make of such as are sentenced to confinement.

Attempt to Kill Pastor.

His mind unbalanced, a victim of religicus mania, Philip Robins, aged fifty, was lodged in jail at Catskill, N. Y., Saturday on complaint of Rev. H. I. Hoag, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Leeds. Robins is proprietor of the Marion House at South Cairo and recently experienced religion through attendance at revivals conducted by Pastor Hoag. After singing hymns and quoting Scripture for the benefit of the neighbors, Robins Saturday suddenly declared that God had commissioned him to slay the Leeds divine, and accordingly he dashed off through mud, covering the three-mile stretch of highway between his home and the Methodist parsonage. Confronting Rev. Mr. Hoag, he touched briefly on the poor outlook for ice and then with clinched fist aimed a blow at the pastor's head, shouting: "God commanded me to kill you and I must do it!" The minister, driven to a corner of the room by the onslaught, retaliated in kind and when opportunity offered darted past the madman and fled to the house of Dr. Rouse. Robins was closely watched by the doctor until the arrival of some county officials, and when lodged in jail was examined by two physicians. He will be committed to the State hospital at Poughkeepsie.

Suicide in Hotel.

The body of a young woman who had been pretty was found yesterday afternoon in the room occupied by herself and a man named William Eggers, 317 west Forty-second street, New York. The woman was half sitting, half lying in a chair. At her feet was a revolver, stained with blood. Eggers, who is a well-dressed, good-looking young man, about thirty, was bending over the body and wiping blood from the woman's face. He was badly unstrung, and it was several minutes before he could talk to the policeman. He said the dead woman was Mrs. Annie Burgess, and that she was thirty years of age. She had been separated from her husband, William Burgess, of Philadelphia, for several years, Eggers said, and had an eleven-years-old son in Philadelphia, who is living with his father. Mrs. Burgess and he had been living together at 317 west Forty-second street, Eggers said. She was in bad health and worried about it. They entertained friends until very late Saturday night He went to bed in his room, and supposed Mrs. Burgess had retired to her bedroom. The police said that Mrs. Burgess was well known in the Tenderloin and that she used to live in a house in west Forty-sixth street.

Twin Bridgrooms for Twin Brides.

An extraordinary marriage took place in Paris last week when the twin brothers Charuteau, both of whom are painters of repute, married the twin sisters Renaud, two beautiful girls who are only 18 years of age. The best men at the wedding were another pair of twins who are cousins of the twin bridegrooms.

Alphonso and Gabriel Charuteau are so much alike that they have been the victims of ludicrous mistakes all their lives. Their mother is a widow, and on this account one of the twins was excused military service. Wishing not to be separated from his brother, he went to live in the town where his twin was quartered. He was arrested four times during the first week, and accused of appearing in public without uniform.

He had the greatest difficulty in convincing the authorities that he was not the conscript. The brothers are so fond of each other that they had resolved never to marry. But they both fell in love almost simultaneously. Their brides are also almost indistinguishable, and mistakes occurred so frequently that each twin began to dress for the first time in a different costume.

Both couples now live in the same house.

The Diamond Cure.

The latest news from Paris, is, that they have discovered a diamond cure for consumption. If you fear consumption or pneumonia, it will, however, be best for you to take that great remedy mentioned by W. T. McGee, of Vanleer, Tenn. "I had a cough for fourteen years. Nothing helped me until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which gave instant relief and affected a permanent cure." Unequalled quick cure for Throat and Lung Troubles. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; price 50c ane $1.00, guaranteed. Trial bott'e free.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best Made

"In my opinion Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best made for colds," says Mrs. Cora Walker, of Poterville, California. There is no doubt about its being the best. No other will cure a cold so quickly. No other is so sure a preventive of pneumonia. No other is so pleasant and safe to take. These are good reasons why it should be preferred to any other. The fact is that few people are satisfied with any other after having once used this remedy. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Soothing and Comforting.

The soothing and comforting effects of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, when applied to Piles, sores, cuts, boils, etc., subdues pain almost instantly. This Salve draws out the inflammation, reduces swelling and acts as a rubefacient, thus circulating the blood through the diseased parts, permitting or aiding Nature to permanently remove the trouble entirely. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street

Many sufferers from nasal catarrh say they get splendid results by using an atomizer. For their benefit we prepare Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Except that it is a liquid it is in all respects like the healing, helpful, pain-allaying Cream Balm that the public has been familiar with for years. No cocaine nor other dangerous drug in it. The soothing spray relieves at once and cure is certain. All druggists, 75c., including spraying tube, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren street, New York.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS
AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

A Liquid Cold Cure.

For coughs and colds no remedy is equal to Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar—the Liquid Cold Cure. It is different from all others—better, because it expels all cold from the system by acting as a cathartic on the bowels. Gives strength to weak lungs. Affords immediate relief in Croup, Coughs, Colds, Whooping-Cough, etc. Children love it. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.
